

California Preservation Foundation and the
California Office of Historic Preservation
P.O. Box 942896
Sacramento, CA 94296-0001

California Preservation
Foundation
2004 Workshop Series
In cooperation with
The California Office of Historic Preservation

Historical Resources Surveys for Local Governments

Wednesday, June 23, 2004
Ontario Police Department
Ontario

Finding Preservation Funding— How to Leverage the Maximum

Thursday, June 24, 2004
Richard J. Riordan Central Library,
Los Angeles

Housing in Historic Buildings — A Good Fit: Retrofitting Historic Buildings for Housing— Enhancing Existing Communities

Friday, June 25, 2004
Richard J. Riordan Central Library,
Los Angeles

*California Preservation Foundation
Workshops are co-sponsored by:*

California Office of Historic Preservation
City of Ontario
City of Los Angeles

CPF is a recipient of the
"William Tumbull Jr., FAIA Environmental Education Grant," from the American Institute of Architects, California Council and the California Architectural Foundation for the purpose of fostering public education and public awareness programs related to the built and natural environment.

Registration Addendum

- These workshops are eligible for CLG staff and commissioner training.
- Additional fees for MQLE or AIA/ CES credits are requested to help defray CPF's costs to be a certified provider.
- This program may be eligible for AICP Continuing Professional Development Program Credits.
- Please complete a separate registration form for each participant.
- Registrations without payment are permitted only with a copy of a government purchase order.

Refunds and Cancellations

Registrants who cancel by 5:00 p.m. Monday, June 14, 2004, will receive registration refunds, less a $25.00 processing charge. No refunds will be given for any cancellation received after Monday, June 14, 2004.

CPF reserves the right to cancel the workshop and will give at least 48 hours notice with full refunds of registration fees.

The California Preservation Foundation (CPF) is the only statewide nonprofit historic preservation education and advocacy membership organization in California. CPF serves as an essential link in the state's historic preservation network, and emphasizes the educational programs, advocacy and information exchange through a quarterly newsletter, the Preservation Design Awards, the Annual California Preservation Conference, workshops and publications addressing critical preservation issues.

Join the California Preservation Foundation

Membership contributions help strengthen statewide efforts to meet California's preservation challenges and opportunities. Members receive CPF's quarterly newsletter, California Preservation. Members receive discounts on conference registrations, events, educational workshops, study tours and publications.

The President's Circle

The President's Circle is a group of committed preservationists who enjoy special recognition, educational opportunities and social activities while supporting the Foundation's endeavors.

Now you can be an invaluable part of the only statewide, nonprofit education, advocacy and membership organization dedicated to preserving California's historic built environment.

For information about becoming a member of CPF, visit our website at:
www.californiapreservation.org

The Office of Historic Preservation in cooperation with the California Preservation Foundation

Historical Resources Surveys for Local Governments

Wednesday, June 23, 2004
9:00 AM Registration
9:30 AM – 5:00 PM

Ontario Police Department
2500 South Archibald Ave.
Ontario, CA

Workshop Program

- Define what local governments need and want from surveys.
- How local governments use survey data.
- How local governments use survey data. Integration of survey information into planning and CEQA.
- Working with consultants to get the survey you want.
- Context-based Surveys Making effective evaluations.
- Community involvement in the survey process.

Who should attend:

- Historic Resources Board Members
- CLG staff
- Planners
- Survey Consultants
- Preservationists
- Community activists
- Historians
- Architects

Speakers

- Lucinda Woodward, Supervisor of Local Government and Information Management Programs, California Office of Historic Preservation
- Marie Nelson, State Historian II, Survey Coordinator, California Office of Historic Preservation
- Cathy Wahlstrom, Senior Planner, City of Ontario
- Diane Kane Ph.D., Senior Planner, City of San Diego
- Janet Hansen, Historic Preservation Specialist, City of Riverside
- Geoff Stams, Associate Planner, City of Ontario
- Kathryn Welch Howe, Getty Conservation Institute

Finding Preservation Funding—How to Leverage the Maximum

Thursday, June 24, 2004
8:30 AM Registration,
9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Richard J Riordan Central Library
630 W 5th St. (at Flower St.)
Los Angeles, CA

Workshop Program

Statewide experts drawn from the public, private and not-for-profit sectors will share their strategies for providing affordable housing by successfully reinvesting in older buildings and neighborhoods. The Funding Incentives Workshop will be coordinated with the following day workshop on housing in historic buildings. This workshop will present the more popular funding tools for historic buildings and how these can leverage the most funding for preservation efforts. Case studies will be included.

Who should attend:

- Non-profit housing providers
- Housing developers
- Public policymakers
- Preservation and neighborhood groups
- Housing and redevelopment agencies
- Architects and design professionals
- Community development experts
- Elected officials and decision makers

Speakers

- Linda Dishman, Executive Director, Los Angeles Conservancy
- Jeff Rouze, Partner, Hollywood Development
- Tim Brandt, AIA, State Office of Historic Preservation
- Phyllis Mueller, Neighborhood Development Coordinator, City of Anaheim
- Gail Ostergen, Research Associate, Getty Conservation Institute
- Elizabeth McDargh, Senior Environmental Officer, HUD
- Peder Norby, Executive Director, Downtown Encinitas Main Street Program
- David Wilkinson, Mercy Housing California
- Charles Loveman, Heritage Housing Partners
- William Pavao, California Department of Housing and Community Development

Housing in Historic Buildings —A Good Fit: Retrofitting Historic Buildings for Housing—Enhancing Existing Communities

Friday, June 25, 2004
8:30 AM Registration,
9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Richard J Riordan Central Library
630 W 5th St. (at Flower St.)
Los Angeles, CA

Workshop Program

Rehabilitation and adaptive reuse of historic structures can be a powerful contributor in efforts to retain and restore affordable housing in older communities. Successful projects often require creative partnerships between housing providers, preservation organizations, public officials and lending institutions. This Housing workshop will present the challenges and advantages of using historic buildings for housing, both affordable and market rate. Discussions will include partnerships and funding availability; the roles of government agencies, developers and preservationists in providing housing in historic buildings and communities; and how to improve the approval and regulatory process with the Standards for Rehabilitation. Case studies and case study tours will be included.

Who should attend:

- Non-profit housing providers
- Housing developers
- Public policymakers
- Preservation and neighborhood groups
- Housing and redevelopment agencies
- Architects and design professionals
- Community development experts
- Elected officials and decision makers

Speakers

- Hamid Behdad, Director of Adaptive Reuse Projects, City of Los Angeles
- Christy McAoy, Principal, Historic Resources Group
- Trudi Sandemeier, Los Angeles Conservancy
- Wade Killefer, Principal, Killefer-Hamming Architects
- Jeff Skoneck, Housing Manager, City of West Hollywood
- Leslie Davis, Housing Coordinator, City of San Clemente
- David Wilkinson, Mercy Housing California
- Russell Schmonk, California Department of Housing and Community Development

Registration Form

One form per person, please make copies of form for additional registrants.
Register online at: www.californiapreservation.org

Name

CPF Membership ID #

Organization/Business/Affiliation

Address

City

State

Zip

Daytime Phone

Fax

E-mail Address

Registration Fees

		CPF Member	Non-Member	CPF Student (ID Required)	Non-Member Student (ID Required)
CLG Training: Historical Resource Surveys		$50		$50
Finding Preservation Funding—How to Leverage the Maximum	By 6/14/04	$100	$125	$50	$60
	After 6/14/04	$125	$150	$75	$85
Housing in Historic Buildings—A Good Fit	By 6/14/04	$100	$125	$50	$60
	After 6/14/04	$125	$150	$75	$85
All Sessions (10% discount)	By 6/14/04	$225	$270	$135	$153
	After 6/14/04	$270	$315	$180	$198
Additional fee for MCLE or AIA/CES Credits	$5.00 per session
AIA Membership #
Total Amount Enclosed	$

Fax, with credit card payment, to CPF at 415/495-0265 or make check payable to:
California Preservation Foundation

VISA/Mastercard #

Expiration Date

Signature

Please return this form and Registration Fees by Monday, June 14 to:

CPF Workshop Registration
5 Third Street, Suite 424
San Francisco, CA 94103
415/495-0349 Phone 415/495-0265 Fax